

As an American I have not been adequately informed about this issue and I don't think there should be a vote on it until the FCC has fulfilled its responsibility to inform me and millions of other Americans about it. What is being done to inform the American people? I want the vote on this issue postponed until the FCC has informed more people. The airways are a public resource and the public should know how you are regulating them. LET THE PEOPLE KNOW BEFORE YOU VOTE.